

GHRA 2nd Annual World Additional Awards and Trophies

AGHBA donated a trophy for the Overall Gypsy Performance Champion, the trophy was awarded according to the AGHBA guidelines for the top scoring horse/rider combination. The winner was Pete Lichau and A Wizards Spell Winstons Brighton the gorgeous horse head trophy was presented by the AGHBA representative Lynn Strauman.

Carol Smettem-Minson and David Brooks of Appleby England donated two Perpetual Trophies. The Zed Memorial Trophy and the Chywoon Stud Trophy.

The Zed Memorial Trophy was presented to the winner (Dam) of the Produce of Dam class. Zed was an American Horse that was brought from Texas to Appleby England. The transfer of this horse forged a friendship that was eventually responsible for the formation of the Gypsy Cob Society in England and then the Gypsy Horse Registry of America, Inc. The winner of this trophy was A Wizards Spell Miss Felicity, owned by Linda Brown. →

← The Chywoon Stud Trophy was presented to the first place in Mares Born in the USA. In Chywoon's opinion these mares are the future of the breed and the quality of America's home bred stock, and this winner is proof that a breeder has understood the sense and purpose of this unique breed. The Chywoon Stud trophy was presented to A CR Diamond Girl and Megan Parks.

Lynn Strauman donated the Lynn Strauman Long Distance Perpetual Trophy to be awarded to the competitor at the GHRA Gypsy Horse World Show that has hauled horses the longest distance to the show. Mandy Mondiel won this trophy having travelled 1,757.34 miles one way to the show.

The perpetual trophies will be kept in the GHRA office. Each year the winner's name will be etched on the trophy and an individual trophy will be presented to the winners.

SD Farms the Steve Down family and Meadow Farm UK Andrea Betteridge came to the show from the UK and brought fine china tea cups with Gypsy Cobs purchased from Appleby and they were awarded to Grand Champion Mare, Stallion and Gelding.
